

PLANNING, DESIGN & CONSTRUCTION

Today's healthcare environment is the definition of complexity, and modernizing the environments within a patient care facility is a perfect illustration. This process is comprised of many complicated pieces: ever changing standards, rapidly evolving technology, emerging innovative procedures and diverse patient needs.

As a proud Corporate Supporter of the American College of Healthcare Architects, Stryker understands this complexity and has the critical pieces in place for you to complete this picture: a modern and efficient patient care environment. Over the last 20 years, Stryker has provided comprehensive integrated room solutions and has installations in all 18 of the Best Hospitals in the United States¹.
